As a former model home for The Lakes condominium community, this unit uniquely enjoys premier views of the serene lake. Eight foot sliding glass doors in the living room open to a private deck that overlooks the serene water feature, fountains, and mature landscaping.

The condo's eleven and one half foot ceilings with clerestory windows are the signature elements of the community's contemporary architecture. Additional features of the 3 bedroom, 2 full bath remodeled home include a formal entry, separate dining room, breakfast bar, hardwood floors, a wood burning fireplace, and complete laundry facilities.

This unit is shielded from views of automobile traffic, garage roof tops, and Shoreline Road traffic noise. Parking and storage is available in the one car garage. Also, one off street parking space is allocated to this unit. Parking for guests is available.

Located two blocks from downtown Mountain View, the Cal Train/VTA transit station, and the Mountain View Farmer's
