Live in historic Beverly Farms, steps from the Atlantic Ocean and private West Beach, and let this classic New England Antique welcome you home. Originally built in 1733, and significantly added to in 1849, this spacious home features six fireplaces including the original keeping room's fireplace with oven. The first floor has an updated kitchen, butler's pantry, dining and living room, keeping room, and expansive family room. The second floor has a master suite and three guest rooms and bath. A walk-up attic offers ample opportunity for home offices and guest rooms. An appreciation of the home's period details, wide pine floors, built-ins, moldings, picture rails and coffered ceilings will serve as the inspiration to update and restore the home while honoring its New England character. Sit on the wrap-around porch and experience the rolling backyard and ocean breezes. Nearby commuter train and shops await as you live your modern life within the context of history revised.
