Rare vacancy at the Nantucket Condominium, a close-knit community in vibrant Madison Valley. Enter through the secured open-air courtyard and meander your way to Unit G, an east-facing unit with its great room soaked in sunlight. Relax in the open concept floor plan with generous living and kitchen space, an entertainer's delight! Get ready for summer and step out onto the massive private deck with peek-a-boo views of Lake Washington and the Cascades...morning coffee and brunches just got better!

Interior touches that are impossible to ignore: solid oak interior doors provide excellent sound abatement from room to room, luxurious hand-scraped Matterhorn birch hardwood flooring, and large windows lining the entire east-wall of unit create for a sunny, serene urban sanctuary.
