European inspired home towers atop this private estate on the Weston/Lincoln line in a serene cul de sac neighborhood. Beautiful wildlife, gorgeous floriculture, majestic grounds, and simply an overall splendor as you pull up the long winding driveway and walk in the double-door foyer with 20-foot-high coffered ceilings. Over-sized rooms, soaring ceilings, tremendous windows, and stunning classical detail depicting a bygone era. With a museum-like quality, the mahogany office is a true show-stopper, but the wainscoting and deep moldings of the living room and dining room are remarkable as well. Family room off of kitchen has 15' ceilings and magnificent windows leading to patio. Already a huge home,
