Situated in the heart of the ever-picturesque Lower Connecticut River Valley, this fascinating, Contemporary hilltop retreat boasts an open floorplan enhanced by soaring ceilings and expansive walls of windows. Flooded with natural light, the home is warm and inviting, creating the ideal space for comfortable, everyday living as well as a wonderful place to graciously entertain family and friends. The eat-in kitchen is newly renovated and features quartz countertops, tile backsplash and stainless appliances. The first-floor, master bedroom suite includes a gracious sitting room with French doors that provide access to the expansive, multi-faceted deck. The spacious family room and exercise area has a separate outdoor access and offers the potential for an in-law or au-pair suite. The property's professional landscaping incorporates a variety of perennial plantings with the mature trees that heightens the beauty of the home's natural surroundings.
