One of the best parts of my job, is working with first time home buyers. I was delighted to represent the buyer of this condo, which is located in a small complex and close to her job. She now has a place to make her own, and I couldn't be happier for her!

Dear Pam,

Being a first time buyer is intimidating, to say the least! You were patient, reassuring, positive, calm, honest, very knowledgeable, and able to educate in a respectful manner. I can't believe everything went so smoothly!

I felt you were looking out for our best interests at all times. Not just trying to sell us a home, but a place that was right for us, and in our price range. I appreciated you pointing out the
