Inn Specialist Johanna Welty and Alain Pinel Realtors are particularly honored to have been awarded the valued listing for the sale of The Gingerbread Mansion Bed and Breakfast Inn. Not only is The Gingerbread an iconic California B&B recognized and revered the world over but even more significant is the property's enduring prestige as one of the West Coast's most prized, photographed and published 19th century architectural landmarks. The premier listing of the 32-room Queen Anne mansion -- the pride of historic "Victorian Ferndale" -- along with its famous manicured English Garden will attract and interest both aspiring, high-end innkeepers and serious preservationists around the world.
