. . . expanded and upgraded through the years, yet still maintains its character. A perfect location-on almost a half acre next to Hartshorne Woods Park, yet convenient to everything, including the beach, two ferries and great restaurants. You'll want to work from home; but, if you can't - it's an easy commute. Red Bank is nearby as well. A large, natural stone fireplace is the centerpiece, and a reminder of the rich heritage and comfortable energy of this home. Multiple levels offer 4 bedrooms, and a separate suite with kitchen for guests or multi-generational living. Windows all around invite the natural setting indoors. You won't want to leave the outdoor paradise created by the current owners. Private, maturely landscaped setting features newer decking and a luxurious above ground pool built-in. Your practical side will welcome the two car, attached garage and full basement for storage.

All of this at a nice price; but there is nothing like this in the area, so carpe diem!
