Remarks

Amazing mid-century hillside ranch. The home offers stunning views of woodlands and meadows. The property is across from an access road to the White Clay Creek State Park. Trails for hiking and biking abound. A nature lovers paradise. There are many native plants. Perfect for the gardener. Opportunity for a pool or tennis court. Spacious rooms make entertaining a pleasure and small groups feel comfortable sitting by the fire. There are many retro touches throughout the house. The kitchen is a cook's delight offering good storage and ample work space. It also allows for casual dining. And then there are the views - a year round display. The living room is a quiet spot with a wood-burning fireplace and access to a sheltered patio. Cork flooring is in living room and kitchen, adding another retro touch. The dining room blends with the comfy family room and overlooks a tranquil wooded backyard. The primary bedroom is quiet and at the back of the house. It comes complete with a nice sized step-in closet. There are retro touches in the bath with a large walk-in shower. Two large rooms in the house offer many uses. The main level office has a separate entrance and is a large flexible space great for entertaining or your workout studio.
