Stylish, solid, and built to impress—this beautifully finished home on a corner lot blends craftsman charm with high-end materials and thoughtful design. Built with lasting quality in mind, it features durable HardiePlank siding, Pella windows, and AdvanTech subflooring for added strength and quiet comfort underfoot.

Inside, luxury vinyl plank flooring runs throughout, complementing the upgraded trim work and eye-catching lighting. The kitchen is a true centerpiece, with a large center island, a walk-in butler's pantry, and designer finishes that bring both function and flair. A main-level flex room offers the perfect space for a home office or guest bedroom.

Upstairs, the primary suite is a standout—complete with a private sitting area and a massive walk-in closet with a center island. Thoughtful built-in
